

There are four steps to becoming a Registered Education Provider or providing OMCA and or OMCP courses.

1. Fee Structure

Applicant using their own proprietary material

- Application Fee: $475.00 US
This is a one-time, non-refundable fee, paid at the time of formal application to become an OMCP Registered Provider.
- Course Review Fee: $900.00 US per course. OMCP considers a course to cover a Fundamental Course or a specific discipline (SEO, analytics, social media marketing, etc.) To qualify as an OMCA provider, a REP must offer a minimum of one Fundamentals course. To qualify as an OMCP provider, a REP must offer a minimum of one Fundamentals course and two specific discipline courses (e.g. SEO, Web Analytics, Social Media Marketing, etc.). Fee is non-refundable.

In the event a course does not meet the requirements and is subsequently submitted for review after updates, additional review fees will be assessed.

- Renewal Process and Costs:
When renewing Registered Provider status, fees are based on the current rate for reviewing courses. The current renewal Application Fee is $275.00 US. Fee is non-refundable.

Applicant using pre-approved licensed material

- Application for an Education Provider using pre-approved licensed material from another Registered Education Provider. Applicant will provide proof of use and teaching from licensed material from Registered Education Provider. To qualify as an OMCA provider, a REP must license a minimum of one Fundamentals course. To qualify as an OMCP provider, a REP must license a minimum of one Fundamentals course and two specific discipline courses (e.g. SEO, Web Analytics, Social Media Marketing, etc).
- Application & Listing Fee: $275.00
This is a one-time, non-refundable fee, paid at the time of formal application to become listed as an OMCP Registered Education Provider providing pre-approved OMCP recognized courses that are licensed from a current Registered Education Provider. OMCP reserves the right to audit licensed materials at any time. If licensed material is being used in ways that differ from OMCP Standards for certification exam preparation. OMCP reserves the right to request
